

General Information

HISTORY

In 1936, during the bleak days of the Great Depression, Dr. H. E. Watters, former President of Georgetown College in Kentucky and Union University in Tennessee, made a heroic but futile effort to re-open Jonesboro Baptist College in Jonesboro, Arkansas. The Jonesboro school succumbed to financial exigencies in the early 1930s after only a few years of life. Jonesboro Baptist College had not been the first Baptist educational venture in Northeastern Arkansas. In 1899, Baptists established the Maynard Baptist Academy in Randolph County, and Woodland Baptist College had flourished briefly in Jonesboro from 1902 to 1911. Despite the tradition of Baptist education in Northeastern Arkansas and Watters' diligent efforts, there was to be no revival of Jonesboro Baptist College. Yet, Watters had not failed entirely. His dramatic appeal for Baptist education inspired others, notably H. E. Williams.

In 1941, Williams, the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Pocahontas, led in the establishment of Williams Baptist College (originally Southern Baptist College) in that town. For several years Williams had been building support for such a venture and in the spring of 1941 when he learned of the availability of a suitable building he pressed forward with an organizational meeting. On June 10, 1941, several hundred people from Northeast Arkansas and Southeast Missouri gathered in Pocahontas to establish a college. Among those in attendance were alumni of Jonesboro Baptist College and Maynard Academy. The new college, which opened on September 10, 1941, was in a very real sense the descendent of the earlier colleges. Indeed, Williams Baptist College ultimately inherited the large library of the Jonesboro school and the first dean of the College was an alumnus of Maynard Academy.

For five years the College experienced steady growth at Pocahontas, but on December 26, 1946, the administration building with much valuable equipment was destroyed by fire. The College was then moved to Walnut Ridge.

A milestone was reached in the history of the institution in 1948 when the Arkansas Baptist State Convention voted to include the College in its budget. Another significant development occurred in 1968 when the Arkansas Baptist State Convention officially adopted Williams Baptist College as a member of its family of institutions; the College is now owned and operated by the Convention.

At the commencement in the spring of 1973, the College Trustees announced that H.E. Williams, who had served as President for thirty-two years, had been appointed President-Emeritus and that D. Jack Nicholas had been elected the second President of the institution. On July 1, 1991, Jimmy A. Millikin assumed the Presidency of the College. On August 1, 1993, Gary C. Huckabay became the fourth President of Williams Baptist College. Dr. Jerol B. Swaim's tenure as President began in July 1995. Prior to his selection as the College's fifth president, Dr. Swaim had served at Williams for more than thirty years as Professor of History and Academic Dean.

WILLIAMS BAPTIST COLLEGE VISION STATEMENT

Williams vision is to be an exemplary Christian college with an integrated curriculum of liberal arts and professional studies shaped by a caring people committed to Biblical precepts and values.

To fulfill our vision, we will:

Provide meaningful opportunities for spiritual enrichment.

Provide superior student-centered educational programs.

Provide the means for personal enhancement and professional development.

Value and respect the contributions of each individual.

Provide an optimal and aesthetically pleasing physical environment.

Be receptive to better ways of fulfilling our mission.

WILLIAMS BAPTIST COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Williams mission is to recruit actively, admit responsibly, instruct effectively, and influence positively both traditional and non-traditional students seeking intellectual, social, emotional, physical, and spiritual growth within the philosophical orientation of a conservative Christian world view, the Judeo-Christian heritage, and Western culture. Fulfilling its mission to educate, equip, and enrich students to be articulate and contributing members of a global society, Williams requires a general curriculum of arts and sciences with opportunities to pursue liberal arts and professional degrees. Williams accomplishes its mission through a wide range of student services, a qualified faculty and staff, athletic programs, an aesthetically-pleasing campus, appropriate facilities, current technological support, opportunities for cultural encounters, and a spiritual atmosphere which emphasizes faith and family values.

WILLIAMS BAPTIST COLLEGE PURPOSE STATEMENTS

To provide opportunities to profess, practice, and strengthen one's faith and to encounter Biblical values.

To provide a caring campus community with opportunities for service to others, leadership preparation, and wholesome recreation.

To provide and assess programs of liberal arts, professional studies, and lifelong learning for a diversified traditional and non-traditional student body.

To provide an organization responsive to the needs of students, personnel, programs, and facilities, with a commitment to planning and leadership.

To provide an aesthetically pleasing campus glorifying to God's creation.

To provide and execute a plan which secures adequate resources to sustain and advance the institution.

To provide a positive image of the quality programs, faculty, students, staff, and graduates of the College.

To provide serviceable facilities which sustain the mission of the College.

To provide a technologically sophisticated infrastructure which supports academic, student, and administrative services.

To provide cultural experiences, thought provoking events, and educational enrichment for the campus community and the community at large.

To provide a healthy athletic atmosphere which engages the team members, the campus community, and the community at large.

To provide desirable housing for students and faculty.

INSTITUTIONAL ACADEMIC GOALS

To produce students who demonstrate an understanding of the Judeo-Christian heritage and Christian world view.

To produce students who demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively across the curriculum.

To produce students who demonstrate the ability to reflect critically upon the environment, society, and self.

To produce students who demonstrate the ability to apply the principles of scientific method to become more effective problem solvers.

To produce students who demonstrate an appreciation for a healthy lifestyle that will promote lifelong health and fitness.

To produce students who demonstrate a competence in at least one particular body of knowledge.

FACULTY

A dedicated and professional faculty is the salient attribute of a strong college. Academic life is governed by the faculty who determine entrance requirements for students, define courses of study, establish degree requirements, teach and advise students, and recommend for degrees those students who have completed their studies.

The influence of the Williams faculty reaches beyond the campus. Faculty members are active in church, civic, professional, and academic organizations; frequently they speak to various off-campus groups; and they write for denominational and secular publications. Most faculty members are widely traveled and many have lived in other sections of the United States and foreign countries.

LOCATION

Williams is located at Walnut Ridge in northeast Arkansas. The campus offers the peace and security of a rural setting with easy access to larger communities. Walnut Ridge/Hoxie has a population of about 8,000, and Pocahontas, eight miles to the north, has 6,000 residents. The larger city of Jonesboro, with a wide array of dining, entertainment and shopping, is 33 miles away. Little Rock and Memphis are within a two-hour drive.

Williams is located three miles north of downtown Walnut Ridge, just off U.S. Highway 67. The campus is nestled between the Ozark Mountains and Crowley's Ridge, with ample outdoor activities available.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS

Williams has an attractive campus of 180 acres with excellent academic, recreational, and housing facilities.

Administration: The Jerol B. Swaim Administration building houses most of the College's administrative offices. Offices in the administration facility include admissions, financial aid, business affairs, academic affairs, advancement, public relations and president.

Apartments: Williams has modestly priced apartments for married students, as well as a limited number of honors apartments for single students who qualify.

Athletic/Recreation Complex: The Southerland-Mabee Athletic/Convocation Center consists of a standard gymnasium, weight room, racquetball courts, jogging track, and stage area for concerts.

Cafeteria: The Mabee-Gwinup Cafeteria seats approximately 500. Students typically dine in the Sulcer Dining Hall. The Moody Dining Room is utilized primarily for special dinners and banquets. The Harty-Missouri Room is designed for special meetings and groups consisting of less than 50. The President's Dining Room will seat 12 guests.

Chapel: The WBC Chapel is one of the few buildings left on campus from the former Walnut Ridge Army Flying School. The chapel, which has undergone extensive renovation, seats 200 people and is used frequently for dramas and lectures.

Classrooms: Approximately 35 classrooms are available for use by students and faculty for academic and co-curricular activities.

Counseling Center: The Billie Harty Counseling Center is located in the Sloan Center. Academic, vocational, and personal counseling are available without cost to all students. Tutoring services are also available through the counseling center.

Education Curriculum Lab: This facility, housed in the Sloan Center, provides an array of resources specifically intended to benefit students preparing for careers in education.

Faculty Housing: Williams owns 27 houses used by faculty and their families.

Library: The Felix Goodson Library is a comfortable and well-equipped facility at the heart of campus academic life. It is a conducive place for study, containing more than 70,000 volumes and a broad spectrum of scholarly and popular periodicals. It provides online reference services, interlibrary loan services, along with CD-ROM, microfiche, and microfilm resources. These library resources can be accessed electronically from any workstation on campus. Included in the library building is a classroom equipped with a computer, multimedia projector, TV, VCR, and DVD.

Maddox Center: The Maddox Fine Arts Center houses the academic areas of music, art, communications, English, history, religion, speech, and business. The Maddox Center also contains a number of classrooms, music rehearsal rooms, a large choral room and a gallery.

Manley Chapel: Manley Chapel was completed in 2009. This building is the location for weekly Chapel services and other special events.

Media Center: The Learning/Media Center is located in the Sloan Center. The center provides audio-visual materials and equipment, and listening and viewing labs. The center schedules the use of audio-visual materials and equipment, prepares instructional aids, and provides duplicating services.

Post Office and Bookstore: The Founders Bookstore and the United States Post Office are housed in a spacious building to the east of Wilson Hall. The bookstore provides textbooks, academic supplies, and College memorabilia. The post office is a full-service branch facility that provides mailboxes for students and staff.

Residence Halls: Residence halls include Cash, Wilson, and Butler for men and Southerland and Shell Wing for women. Special features in residence halls include either a private bath or a shared bath throughout the facilities. All residence halls have lounges.

Sloan Center: The Sloan Center houses offices for education, psychology, natural sciences and mathematics. It also features a computer lab, counseling center, lecture hall, science labs, classrooms, conference room and a greenhouse.

Student Center: The Mabee Student Center provides pool tables and a fitness room. The Center also includes the Eagle Coffeehouse and Grill. The Office of Student Affairs, the Office of Campus Ministries, and other student activity offices are located in the center. The Student Center has a small computer lab and study area.

Technology: Williams students have access to a substantial technology infrastructure at the College. The Felix Goodson Library catalog is on-line and accessible from any workstation on campus. Comprehensive Internet services are available to students through the College's two computer labs and workstations in the library, residence halls, and the Student Center. The College also provides, through its web site, an array of electronic journals and other resources.